what you find in these two pages.

VINCENT ASTOR WATCHES CARPENTIER AND VOTES HIM IN GOOD SHAPE

WASHINGTON TIMES SPORTS

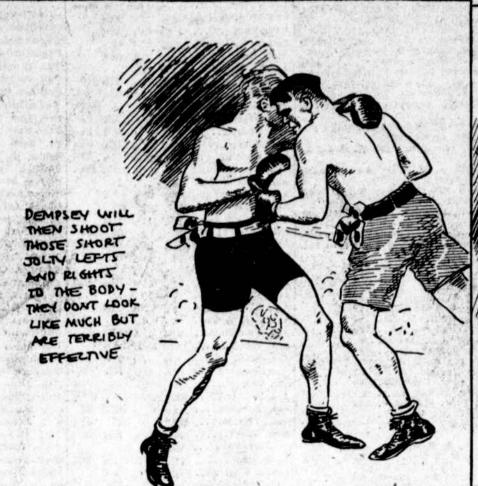

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1921.

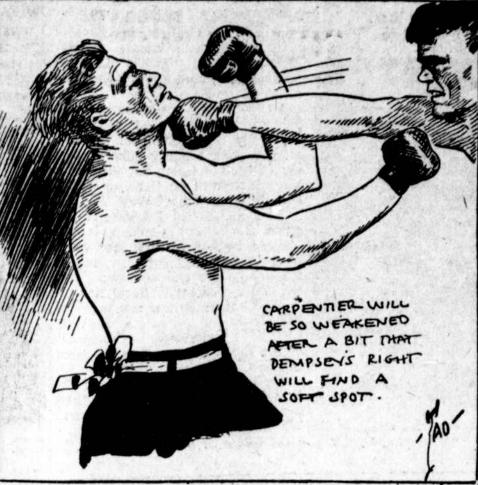

Babe Ruth, Home Run King of all time, writes for the Two Babe Ruth Sports Pages of The Washington Times and you cannot afford to miss them even for a day.

HOW TAD THINKS THE BIG FIGHT WILL GO

"IT WILL TAKE DEMPSEY ONLY A FEW ROUNDS TO BEAT CARPENTIER," SAYS TAD

CARPENTIER SHOWS REAL INCREASE CAPACITY FORM BEFORE AUDIENCE, OF BOXING ARENATO INCLUDING VINCENT ASTOR SEAT 70,000 JULY 2

Written for International News Service. MANHASSET, L. I., June 9.—Before a small but select audience back of the old barn at Matthews farm, Georges Carpentier stepped four fast rounds against three sparring partners yesterday afternoon and showed more in a boxing way than he has heretofore uncovered for the "experts" on days when newspaper men were admitted to the ringside.

The most prominent guest at Carcent Astor, who motored down from New York with a party of friends. The Astor party received hardly more attention than the forty other guests who draped themselves over the lawn as the European champion went through his stunts.

CARPENTIER MUCH AT EASE. Captain Mallet, Carpentier's New York representative, arranged for the admission of Astor and his friends but the young multi-millionaire stood on the lawn the same as the other spectators during the half hour that Carpentier worked. In the party were a number of theatrical folk. Carpentier seemed to be much more at ease before this audience than he inutes without raising more than a slight perspiration. He then entered the ring and began boxing with Paul amateur champion of the Metropoli ton district, was added to the corps of sparring partners yesterday. Rosenberg is the lad who went the limit with Mike Gibbons at Ebbets Field recently, though losing the de-

DID SOME FANCY BOXING. After Journee came Rosenberg, He wore a heavy head gear and got some heavy blows while the French champion danced around and did some fancy boxing. Rosenberg went two rounds, and when he finished was perspiring profusely, while Carpentier hardly turned a hair. The Frenchman did no shadow boxing, but completed his workout by boxing a round with Italian Joe Gans and then went through his usual ring calisthenics. The spectators were very much impressed with the speed of Georges, and the ladies present all boped that the horrible Mr. Dempsey will not prevail against him July 2. in France, spoke highly of the French

LITTLE JEFF CLASHES

champion's condition. Mr. Astor will visit Dempsey's camp in the near fu-

WITH FRANKIE MASON BALTIMORE, June 9 .- Little Jeff, Baltimore's popular flyweight, is to figure in his most important ring engagement this evening. The little Italian scrapper is booked to exchange punches with Frankie Mason, the Fort Wayne Flash, in a 12-round which will feature the Na ional Athletic Club's program at the big Jess never showed much class in Fifth Regiment Armory.

Mason still claims the American flyweight championship, and in many was sections is recognized as the legitimate holder of the laurels. Johnny handle himself well. Buff, of Jersey City, put in a claim for the honors when he gained a deeision over Mason some months ago ment. that the bout was not at the flyweight limit, and that Buff came into the arena weighing 116 pounds.

appears to be finely trained for tonight's battle. will be featured by a pair of ten-rounders, the first of which will be etween Eddie Burnbrook, of Camp Holabird, and Al Yeager, the East Baltimore middleweight, while the other will bring into action Joe Chaney, brother of George Chaney, the knockout king, and Danny Durante, of Washington. These ening, as the contestants appear to be very evenly matched.

Murphy Goes Back.

NEW YORK, June 9.- Eddie Murphy, recently released by the Chicago for the waiver price, has been turned over to the Columbus club, of the Association, by Manager

Intense Interest in Dempsey-Carpentier Bout Prompts Enlargement.

The seating capacity of the arena on Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, where Jack Dempsey, the champion. and Georges Carpentier, challenger, will battle for the world's heavyweight title on July 2, has been increased so as to accommodate about 70,000 spectators.

The original arena plans were drawn for a capacity of 50,000, but the intense interest reflected in the bout through the medium of the ticket sale has prompted Promoter Tex Rick and to enlarge the arena. This is being accomplished by increasing the number of rows in the different sections of the octagonal shaped pine structure and adding materially to the height of the arena at the furth-is when the newspaper critics are on hand. He punched the bag for ten CHAMPIONS USUALLY HAVE copping the big pot of jack, it remains to be seen whether the long skinny pedestal or the short piano mover type will excel.

To dig up ring history, Sullivan, the mighty John L. peer of all former champions, was a flat-foot fighter. Built on legs almost too slender to support his huge bulk, the Boston strong boy was possessed of ponderous shoulders and deep chest

LATEST DOPE FOR BOUT

NEW YORK, June 9,—Latest physical comparisons of Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier follow:

John L. was not shifty and depend ed largely upon his opponent standing close, where he might reach him with his mighty fists. In most of his encounters, aside from memorable battle with Jim Corbett when he was licked from exhaustion brought on by dissipation, the huge champion was never leg weary. HE WAS SLENDER.

Jim Corbett, the Charles Paddock of all the heavies, was possessed of slender but shapely limb much on the order of the Greek athlete of old. Quick as a flash, never a heavy hitter, but an antelope in action, his legs always carried him quickly out of harm's way. Carelessness lost him the championship to Jeffries after lost to Fitzimmons on a solar plexus

Jack Johnson was an ebony Hercules. Constructed on even, graceful lines, the big smoke was a marvel of Thin but well modeled limbs and a big frame, Johnson was a crafty cunning fighting machine. His footwork, for a big man, was marvelous. Willard, standing 6 feet 6 inches tall, was built in proportion. While his championship days, the huge cow boy could strike a hard blow. He not overfast on his legs, due his tremendous size, but he could Sharkey, while not a champion, was a model of muscular develop The sailor was very much fown in New Orleans, but Mason and on the order of the heavyweight his manager, George Beimer, contot wrestler. His lower limbs were whipcords of strength.

BANKED ON STRENGTH.

Jim Jeffries' 6 feet 11/2 inches weighed 220 pounds. The big boiler maker was agile for his bulk, but, like John L., depended wholly upon his tremendous strength to bring home the bacon. He had a deep chest and a massive pair of limbs set solidly on two well-proportioned

These legs stood him in good stead and only once in his career did they performer. fail him-at the time when public clamor forced the shell of the once massive frame to meet Johnson for the championship. In that battle, nature had run its course. struction. A first impression of

FINE THIN UNDERPINNING

Legs will play a part in the winning of the big derby at Jersey City on July 2 next. While the hands will perform the major part in

Injury Is an Injury Whether at Lacrosse Or Football

Somewhat to the surprise of an Eastern college man it was discovered that Harvard has been playing lacrosse for a period of forty years. Within that time the Crimson has made an excellent record, yet lacrosse is scheduled as one of the minor sports and little is ever heard about the game except in varsity circles. There has been some talk about extending the zone of major sports to include lacrosse, and the waggish student asks why it is not as much an honor to have a nose pancaked at lacrosse as it is at the limbs of a Jeffries, the effect can well be imagined. With legs too massive for such a frail body the French contender seems to be built out of proportion. Broad at the hips, his heavy thighs and calves appear anything but graceful. However, the power of or two. The great John L beat his indurance is stamped upon Where Georges acquires his speed is a problem.

WOULD BE UNIQUE.

Not overpowerful in chest or upper body for a man who hopes to annex the world's heavy-weight title, Carpentier is a unique figure noted for his punch yet he was badly in pugilism. If his calling had not beaten in most of his fights. Maher been of its present nature, Georges had him on the ropes, the bell saving might have been a remarkable all- him. Corbett had him down in Carround athleta.

He might have been proficient as a discus, hammer or javelin thrower, or Jeff knocked him stiff. He was easy in jumping, pole vaulting or hurdling. He would be fairly fast in sprints, but strong in marathon or endurance tests of speed. In short, the French Jeff's eyes and busted his mouth but wonder man could no doubt have out- was unable to drop him. Do you pointed our best all-round college think that Jeff would have been able pointed our best all-round college

Dempsey, on the other hand, is pullt for one purpose—fight—as Muldoon said of him just before the Toledo scrap. Nature made of him a big Jim's legs refused to obey him, fighter in every sense of the word. In comparison, Carpentier, the slender, strong and muscular, grace-The champion's legs are long and French contender, is a freak in con- ful in detail, and hitched to a body equally proportioned. The comparison White Sox to the Cleveland Indians Georges in ring costume is startling. to the past great champions is strik-With the body of a light heavy- ing while not given the credit of beweight and with lower limbs so ing a speed demon in the ring, Dempmodeled as to sgerve a body of a 225- sey is nevertheless fast for a heavy- with the champion? He could not pound man, the sight is uncanny, weight, and his trim legs may show Peter was a terrific hitter but he was weighing 175 pounds supported by upon to extend himself.

Says Automobile Golf Is a Game Where a Chauffeur Putts a Pedestrian Into the Nearest Manhole

HARDEST HITTING CHAMPION

OLD TIMERS SAY OF DEMPSEY

By TAD.

Written for International News Service.

sey is the hardest hitting heavyweight who ever dug his shoes into days of Paddy Ryan up. They talked would be soft for this Dempsey per their lips over demi-tasses in a French restaurant last night.

talked of fighters from the Dempsey's mighty sock with either the list.

of Sullivan. He was a great hitter, yes, but then he never dropped his man dead in his tracks with a punch men up and finally stopped them, but he was no Dempsey. Could he stand

COULD HAVE TRADED PUNCHES.

but not a great one. Fitzsimmons was son City, Choynski had him down in Boston, Ruhlin had him groggy and glass-eyed at Madison Square Garden, to hit. Would he have been able to

No, sir. In his second battle with Jeff, the great Fitz closed both of to stand up after Dempsey hit him

JEFF DIDN'T HAVE VOLTAGE.

Would the sturdy sailer have battled twenty-five rounds with Dempsey and stood the gaff the way he did with Jeff? Not on your life. Jeff didn't

Could Peter Maher trade punches

Sharkey was quite a socker but he was a target for his opponents. Saturday.

with the champion? He could not, the bat with three hits.

beavyweight who could trade socksdeserved a better fate.

trade punches with Dempsey?

that often? Once again, no!

that Dempsey has.

There was Corbett, a good hitter left or right? The answer was no.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 9.—Their opinion is that Jack Demp

Who are they? Why they are a bunch of old-timers who were lifting

VERY popular game being the streets and the automobile drivplayed in the large cities is ers musn't be selfish.
"Automobile Golf." The machines are the putters and pedestrians are golf balls.

And the crowded street is the golf

The idea of the game is to see how many strikes it takes you to knock the pedestrian into the nearest manhole.

The city places traffic cops at every block to see that nobody cheats.

and he had only hit three. The score is decided by subtract- for the tires. ng the pedestrians' telephone number from your automobile license and dividing it by your fine. One automobilist ran over a deective and sued the city. He punc-aired a tire on the detective's star. The automobile clubs throughout the country are trying to pass a law making cops wear rubber badges.

The chauffeur hollered "Fore!

One of the rules of the game is that while one automobile is knockng a pedestrian around the street. no other automobile must butt in.

hit him while his back is turned h may be carrying something on his him up onto the sidewalk.

of the pedestrians there.

the next street.

hip and broken glass isn't very good But strict enforcement of prohibi

If they don't hit anybody on one tions laws is making it easier for automobile drivers every day. Never strike a pedestrian too hard; you may be knocking him too far from his home.

If an automobile golf player should putt a pedestrian quite a distance, always ask him if he has carfare enough to get home.

You can at least do this when you're getting your golf balls for nothing. There are plenty of pedestrians on Copyright, 1921, by Premier Syndicate, Inc

We've never had a title holder wh disposed of opponents like Dempsey has. Dempsey didn't pick soft ones didn't overlook a contender. Look over

EVERY ONE A KNOCKOUT.

They are all knockouts. He started with "Motorman" Miller, who beat Jess Willard in four rounds on Motorman Miller, K. O. one round.

Porky Flynn, K. O. one round.

Fred Fulton, K. O. one round.

Battling Levinsky, K. O. three

Carl Morris, K. O. one round. Gunboat Smith, K. O. two rounds.

Jess Willard, K. O. three rounds.

Bill Brennan, K. O. six rounds.

And they were all good until Demp-

Dempsey is not going to let the Billy Miske, K. O. three rounds.

sey hit them.

action for long. He

ELKS WALLOP K. OF P.

the coast, and here is the list:

Jim Flynn, K. O., one round.

He took everyone there was.

Disappointment Doped CRITICS ERR IN DOOMING For Fight Fans On July 2

There is pretty sure to be some disappointment over the Dempsey-Carpentier affair. Many of those who are now scrambling to pay $50 for tickets, or twice that amount if they wait until the ticket speculators start to sell, do not seem to realize that indications point to a brief encounter. They should expect a short fight.

Both boxers are fast starters. Dempsey has never met such a fast starter as the Frenchman. Expert testimony indicates that it may be over in a few minutes. If ticket purchasers are wise they will be prepared for a brief sojourn in Jersey City on July 2.

block, they may have better luck up The rules say that you must hit a pedestrian while he is on the street and under no circumstances chase Automobilists must keep their machines off the sidewalk; bicycle riders and roller skaters will take care

Formidable Contender.

By JACK VEIOCK. NEW YORK, June 9 .- California's dark horse in the classic Poughkeep- practically every punch that is a fav- events and two-twenty hurdle. Balsie regatta on the Hudson, June 22, according to indications today.

The fine showing of the "Bears" largely responsible for this, but the act that the native sons like the longer distance will have much to do with attracting sentiment toward their chances of winning the intercollegiate race. They have already proven that they have class. TAKES ON REGATTA ASPECTS. Ben Wallis, ex-Yale varsity oarsman and couch of the Californians. has led his oarsmen in action at Poughkeepsie for several days. Coumbia and Syracuse have also been practicing on the Hudson and the smart Navy eight is ready to start working over the three-mile course. 'he sweepmen of Cornell and Penn will also join in activities at Poughkeepsie before many days have passd and the historic Hudson will resume its old time pre-regatta aspect. The feature of the last few days of practice at Poughkeepsie has been he fine showing of the Californians. The Bears have class sticking out all over them and rowing critics who have watched the work of various rews for years are united in voting

Wallis' crew the best that has ever been sent to Poughkeepsie from out f the West There is every indication that California will be in the running from start to finish on June 22. The distance suits the Bears, for one thing, and the beating they got at Princeton, according to Coach Wallis, did them more good than harm WILL BE A CONTENDER.

The Navy's fine octet will be very much in theh coming race. Country Moore's crew, stroked by Clyde King, Ebbets Field this summer in an lost to Princeton's "B" aggregation, open-air show. International Sport-but by less than did California. The ing Club officials are seeking to ar-Navy, however, is at its best over range this match or to have Moran the longer distances and as the Middies are out to balance the defeat at Princeton by a victory at Poughkeepsie they will be more than hard Columbia and Cornell must be fig-and Columbia has shown marked su- Amherst last fall. periority over Penn. The crews that figure to fight it out on the last leg cut over his eye keep him out of of the big race, however, are the sume boxing next Sunday and if the Navy and California. And the race eye is well enough he may start in promises to develop a contest that proved easy for the strong Fordham starred on the West Virginia football will go down in rowing annals as one team here yesterday, the Bronx lads of the greatest ever staged in this winning, 11 to 5. Jeffries. for Princeton, was wild, walking six

Kids to Have Track.

IN FRATERNAL LEAGUE CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 9 .--Scoring ten runs in the first three have the power behind his punches innings, the Elks won easily from cinder track at the Harvard stadium the Knights of Pythias team in the will be set apart for the exclusive Fraternal League, Luber leading at use of high school boys next spring. little or no assistance from the lo With eleven hits, one less than its Athletics Fred W. Moore. High today declared war on baseball gam-

FRENCHMAN, SAYS CORBETT By JAMES J. CORBETT.

Copyright, 1921, by International News Service.

Some people who have been watching Georges Carpentier in his workouts at Manhasset are picking him to lose to Jack Dempsey on what he has shown with curious visitors in his camp.

talks with him and from what his record shows, it is a certainty that he can box and that he possesses a punch heavy enough to defeat any man can box and that he possesses a punch heavy enough to defeat a living if he lands in the right spot.

I am going to be among those present at Manhasset today. I am eager to see the Frenchman in action and I hope he unlimbers some of his best punches, but I doubt that he will. As a matter of fact, Carpentier isn't showing anything. It is his prerogative to do his real work in private and so far he has taken absolute advantage of it.

really clever boxer could easily fool spectators. He can show as much or little as he cares to. He can appear

of the pedestrians there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you one cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrians there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

One cop caught a chauffeur in a pedestrian from the front; if you of the pedestrian there.

stalwart rowing crew will be the Atlantic City camp he has shown LeGendre will compete in the disconnection to the disconnection of the compete in the trying to conceal anything.

PRINCETON PICKS NATIVE

TO CAPTAIN TRACK TEAM PRINCETON, N. J., June 9 .- Willa E. Stevenson, star quarter miler, was chosen to lead the Tigers track team of next season at a meeting of this year's letter men after the annual track dinner. Stevenson, who is a junior, lives in track team in his senior year. In the recent Princeton-Yale dual meet Stevenson broke the old record for these contests when he reeled off the quarter in 48 5-4 seconds. In the intercollegiates Stevenson finished third in his event. Stevenson does not by any means confine his efforts to athletics, as in addition to holding several other offices, he is president of the senior class.

Andover, where he captained the May Tackle Wills.

Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh blonde, may face Harry Wills at Names Youngstrom.

NEW YORK, June 9.-Adolph "Swede" Youngstrom, all-American ured to give the Middles and Bears Dartmouth tackle in 1919, has been some opposition, with Columbia's appointed assistant coach of the chances much the brighter. The New York University eleven for next Navy has already trimmed Syracuse fall. He was assistant coach at

Easy for Fordham. PRINCETON, June 9 .- The Tigers and hitting four batsmen. He also permitted eleven hits.

To Fight Gamblers.

according to Graduate Manager of cal police officials, Barney Dreyfuss men before going to Chicago and ex- Standing 5 feet 111/2 inches and up surprisingly well if he is called also copped himself quite often. Any victorious opponent, the K. of P. nine schools in this vicinity are lacking blers at Forbes Field. Every known weighing 175 pounds supported by upon to extend himself. such facilities in several instances. gambler will be refused admittances ormer World's Hen vyweight Champion.

Why this should be the case I cannot understand, because from my vantage of it.

All the accounts I have read from Manhasset have contained hints that Georges bears the earmarks of a boxer who has a lot to learn. But wait. A slow-footed, conceal his best punches and make himself appear to be a "sucker" for a left or a right hand, or both for that matter.

I have not yet seen Carpentier in a Bob LeGendre, captain of the real workout, but I am convinced that Georgetown University track team hitter.

Dempsey is much different than er, and no matter when be gets into entered in the Aloysius Club meet to for him to do just that. And he isn't fident its star man, McDonagh, will to accomplish his purpose as quickly as possible. But even Carpentier, should he study Dempsey in action, would not have a positive line on how the champion might be expected to meet his (Carpentier's) attack in a real fight. No man can be positive regardng what to expect from an opponent Every fighter must make his fight as t comes to him or as he sees opening: for offense. All the advice in the world is useless before a battle ac tually gets under way.

PITTSBURGH, June 9 .- Receiving

Legendre, Maxam, Holden, Pugh, Griffith, and Others Will Race Saturday.

University of Pennsylvania: Ed Pugh crack hurdler of Tech, and Dorsey Griffith, former Georgetown runner now with the Aleysius Club, are Carpentier. Essentially he is a fight- among the exceptional performers

LeGendre will compete in the dash timore Cross Country Club is conwin the century, despite the plentiful Washington talent entered. McDonagh against Princeton's crack "B" crew and he is going into the ring July 2 also is entered in the 220-yard hurdle Perry Dowrick, former high school star, is entered in the dashes. Dan Healy, veteran distance runner, will try his aging legs in the 3-mile race.

FRANKIE RICE TO MEET

TIPLITZ IN BALTIMORE BALTIMORE, June 9 .- The boxing season of the National Athletic Club will not end tonight with the conducting of the flyweight battle between Little Jeff of this city and Frankie Mason of Fort Wayne, which will be staged at the Fifth Regiment

Last night Lieut, James W. Dewey. matchmaker of the National, announced that he had paired Frankie Rice, the East Baltimore lightweight and Joe Tiplitz, of Philadelphia, to A return bill between Rice and Princeton and prepared for college at Tiplitz has been looked forward to for many weeks by the local advo> due to the sensational turn of events in their meeting last winter at the Fourth Regiment Armory.

> That the contest did not meterialize before this was because of a decree by the State athletic con mission that, inasmuch as the Eureka Athletic Club had secured the signature of Tiplitz to box Rice, the boys must appear before that or cates of the glove sport, this being

FRANK MORAN MATCHED

WITH MARTIN, OF A. E. F. NEW YORK, June 9 .- Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, heavyweight, and Bob Martin, A. E. F. heavyweight champion, have been matched for a fifteen-round open-air contest here July 1, it was announced tonight. This will be Moran's first bout since he returned from England, where he cember.

Ira Rodgers Stays.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., June Ira E. Rodgers, who piloted the 1921 West Virginia University baseball team to the tri-State championship, day was re-elected to coach the 1932 Mountaineer nine. Redgers formerly

